Perfect Earth Tours is the world's first 99% sustainable organic luxury adventure eco spa & resort. Their aim is to bridge the perceived gap between sustainability and profit.

As the world leader in ecologically sustainable luxury adventure wilderness spa holidays, PERFECT EARTH TOURS Adventure Eco Spa & Resort, which is located about 60 flight minutes (by float plane) outside of Whitehorse, truly goes out of its way to embody extreme eco spa luxury in the heart of the Yukon Territory in Canada, with absolute respect for Mother Earth. Our motto is "If it is not good or healthy enough for our own children and grandchildren, then it is not good enough for our guests".

We provide an alternative for people who would like to experience the timeless beauty of the true wild north in absolute luxury while contributing as much as possible to saving our planet and leaving nothing but your personal footprint in the mountains.
