Jeff Kaller, visionary, educator and real estate developer has pioneered the most preeminent pre-foreclosure system in the United States. Kaller specializes in a well kept industry niche; he teaches the real estate secrets of purchasing pre-foreclosed properties

Jeff Kaller has created the most powerful information available on negotiating Short Sales. People from all over the country have benefited from his cutting edge strategies. Kaller informs people how they can use their real estate investment skills to profit from today's foreclosure frenzy, legally and ethically. The pain of loss from foreclosures is suffered by many; homeowners and investors take a huge loss during the foreclosure process. When a lender accepts a short payoff (short sale), his loss isn't as great, and the homeowner saves their home and credit from foreclosure.

Being armed with the latest pre-foreclosure information and techniques is vital. With more than 1.2 million foreclosure, pre-foreclosure, bankruptcy, FSBO and tax lien listings, it is important to be trained in the analysis and research of large, complex databases of foreclosed homes and investment property information.

Jeff Kaller will be speaking at an all day event in Chicago, IL on February 16th and February 17th. Registration and additional information are shown on his website at www.jeffsworkshop.com/

Jeff Kaller is expecting people from Cook, McHenry, Kane, Dupage and Kendall Counties, including Alpine, Barrington, Calumet City, Chicago, Eastside, Englewood, Ford Heights, Glenn, Hastings, Melrose Park, Sauganash, Algonquin, Crystal Lake, Prairie Grove, Aurora, Geneva, Montgomery, Lisbon, Yorkville, and Newark, to name a few.
