The European Football Championship 2008 is just around the corner. That's the right moment to get the equipment and to get in the mood for the great football happening. Footballz is exciting entertainment for the mobile phone, making the mobile gamer sweat the, too.

Indeed, you don't have to shoot balls into the goal, but Footballz will get your adrenalin flowing anyway. Ball-boy David has to catch all golden balls lying on the green grass. He has to speed through obstacles, sidestep and swoop for one by one ball. With every collected ball another obstacle on the green field emerges and makes it more than difficult for David.

Deft with your fingers and with good reaction, you have to lead the ball-boy around cleverly and gain the best score for the best performance. The aim is to become a real master of the green field and to sign in the highest score in the online high score list. A difficult task to manage but this is no problem for real football fans.

Footballz provides great entertainment in an exciting challenge on the mobile phone. Surprising features increase the fun even more. The mobile game is free to download at www.zelfi.com/en/mobile-games/for-free/footballz-free/.
