Press release from: Swash Putting Schools

The Harold Swash Putting School of Excellence is pleased to announce the successful completion of its first level 2 Accredited Instructors programme.

A year after completing level one Bart van der Wind (Holland), Bart Bollen (Belgium) and Christian Schonfeldt (Denmark), attended the 2nd tier of the coaching programme to further educate themselves along their journey as specialist putting instructors.

The level 2 programme builds upon the introduction of the Swash philosophy that is offered at level one.

On day one of the 2 day course, Director of Instruction Phillip Kenyon presented further insights into the Swash philosophy and also a detailed view of the common faults and their fixes as well as a series of example case studies to allow the coaches a more in-depth understanding of the philosophy in practice.

Day 2 saw the coaches assessed in practice as they delivered a series of lessons to students.

Overall the coaches enjoyed the 2 days and all passed on positive feedback into how it has helped them become better equipped to help improve their own students putting.
