The early part of the year has been a busy time for HSPSE as the Harold Swash Accredited Instructor Scheme continues to grow. The scheme educates teaching professionals in tour proven coaching methods to help them specialise as putting instructors.

January saw Rob Roelofs from Holland and Stephen Campbell from Germany completed the 2 day course while.

In February Thomas Burden, Peter Thelin and Jonas Wulker became the first teaching pros from Sweden to complete the level one programme.

Alongside the 3 pro's from Sweden on the February course was Martin Bauer, a teaching professional and national from a lesser known golfing destination the Czech Republic.

The pros from new shores saw the scheme grow to 20 strong affiliated coaches worldwide.

For more information on each professional please visit their individual instructor pages.
