With the objective to continue our presence at international events as a quality guarantee. One more year ICG was present with our own booth at CeBIT 2008, one of the most important new technology shows in Europe, organized in the German city of Hanover from 4 to 9 of March.

One of our main objectives of this edition of the CeBIT was to promote our specialized technology solutions for the management of Hospitality chains, with high technology for Hotels, Restaurants, Pizzerias, Fast-Foods and Nightclubs; Retail with the solutions for Fashion, Supermarkets and the management of chains and franchises; Industry and distribution, with our highly adaptable ERP solution to satisfy the needs of any type of business, and all new features incorporated in those solutions.

During those days we have personally met our customers and collaborators in Europe, East Asia and the Middle East, who visited the show to get to know our new features.
