Press release from: Plunet

With immediate effect, Richard Sikes is the new trainer and consultant to support the activities of the expanding software provider Plunet on the American market. Sikes has been in the localization and translation industry for 20 years and is known as one of the most sophisticated and prestigious connoisseurs of the branch. “We hired just the perfect guy for consulting our American customers”, Stefan Dümig, managing director and founder of Plunet, explained.

Furthermore, Plunet reacts on the growing number of new customers and customer requests on the European Market by expanding its consulting team. Immediately, Sufian Reiter is a new consultant located in Berlin. Reiter studied International Business Administration at the University of Applied Sciences (FHTW) in Berlin and has already long-term experience in consulting and project management in the field of marketing and IT.
