MTS Minnesota Connections Academy (ConnectionsAcademy.com), a high-quality, highly accountable, virtual public school, recently announced the remaining field trips for the 2007-'08 school year.

What:

The faculty at MTS Minnesota Connections Academy (MTSMCA) planned 72 field trips across the state of Minnesota for the 2007-'08 school year. The field trips are an opportunity for virtual public school students to come together, support the principles and theories presented in students' lessons, and socialize with other MTS Minnesota Connections Academy students and parents. Most of MTSMCA's students and their parents participate in multiple field trips during the year, bringing field trip attendance thus far to 1,200. The average attendance at each field trip is 19.
