Press release from: Stockbridge Consultant Group

(Michigan) Stockbridge Consultant Group is arming travelers with timely information and up-to-date tips and guidelines, and it is helping make the booking and travel process as smooth as possible.

The average traveler has a lot to remember with the recent changes in security guidelines, baggage restrictions, weight limitations and changing food services. Travelers now need to track the latest changes and/or guidelines affecting them with regard to elevated security levels. Now it's more important than ever to have an insider from Stockbridge Consultant to provide consumers with the latest information on what's going on in travel and how this affects them.

From information on consumer guidelines to tips on how to travel smart in the current environment, Stockbridge Consultants Group has created tools to help travelers stay informed. In addition to industry-leading customer service, Trillium Drake offers information on air traffic delays, the latest industry changes, airline security guidelines, flight status, travel trends in an uncertain environment, and even general customer advice.
