ATLANTIC CITY, NJ – April 22 2008 – The Atlantic City Hilton is about to get hunk'd! The casino announced that the International Hunks Male Model Revue will present the "Ultimate Ladies' Night Show" on Saturday, May 17, 2008 in the 10 "Til Showroom.

The International Hunks are one of the most famous male model revues in the world. They have appeared on numerous television shows including "The Late Show with David Letterman," Fox's "So You Think You Can Dance," MTV Puerto Rico, and others. The group's success has also landed them on the pages of magazines, including Muscle & Fitness and Playgirl.

When the International Hunks hit the Hilton on May 17, the audience can expect a show packed full of sexy dancing mixed with humor. The 90-minute performance will include intricately choreographed dances, ornate costumes, and of course, chiseled muscle-laden performers. Guests can purchase tickets for the show only or they can choose a ticket and buffet package.

The show, although racy and sexy, still maintains an aura of class thanks to the elite, professionally trained performers.

Audience participation factors into the show, making for an always unpredictable – and sometimes wild – time.

More than one million satisfied women and countless media outlets have raved about the International Hunks, which stars talented men from various exotic locales. In fact, the performers are handpicked from all over the globe – from Brazil to Spain to Italy and even America – to give the show a decidedly international feel.
