

Filmmakers - ISFFH Call For Entries 2008

Date: 05-16-2008 02:08 PM CET

Category: Leisure, Entertainment, Miscellaneous

Press release from: International Student Film Festival Hollywood

The International Student Film Festival Hollywood (ISFFH) is now accepting submissions for its 6th annual Film and Video Competition. The Festival will be held in the NoHo Arts District of North Hollywood, CA - November 5 – 9, 2008.

Submission deadline is August 31, 2008. More information and Entry forms are available on the website www.isffhollywood.org and should be sent to 4821 Lankershim Blvd. Suite F-132, North Hollywood, CA 91601 USA.

Participants must be registered in elementary, junior high or high school, community college, university, graduate or private film schools. Students compete with their own peers (i.e. high school students will only compete with other high school students) and the competition is open to students of all ages and academic backgrounds.

Hollywood is the capital city of the entertainment world. The International Student Film Festival Hollywood is the only film festival that embraces all ages from around the world, offering students the unique opportunity to gain the recognition of film industry leaders creating career development opportunities in their home countries as well as the United States.

Student filmmakers actively engage in discussions facilitated by industry professionals, further building their enthusiasm, self-confidence, and public speaking skills. At the same time, it is an opportunity to entertain, enlighten, educate, and engage the audience.

The opportunities provided by the ISFFH not only benefit the students, but the world community by bringing together people of diverse cultures and differing viewpoints.

Awards are presented to winners after their films are judged by a panel of professional filmmakers, directors, producers, actors, distributors, agents, film critics, journalists and professors that comprise the jury. Films first go through a preliminary screening, then separated into genres they go before a panel of judges, and on to the blue ribbon judges. Awards are given in a variety of categories and may change year to year depending on the submissions; some of the categories are Grand Jury Award, Humanitarian Award, Best Drama, Best Documentary, Best Short, Best Animation, Best Cinematography, and Best Music Video.

International Student Film Festival Hollywood
4821 Lankershim Blvd. F132
North Hollywood, CA 91601
Robin Saban
Founder/President
818-203-4179

info@isffhollywood.org

Hollywood is the capital city of the entertainment world. The International Student Film Festival Hollywood is the only film festival that embraces all ages from around the world, offering students the unique opportunity to gain the recognition of film industry leaders creating career development opportunities in their home countries as well as the United States.

You can find this press release here