Mandy and Pandy is an exciting series of twelve educational children's books, teaching parents and their children to speak Chinese starting with Mandy and Pandy Say "Ni Hao Ma?" and Mandy and Pandy Play "Let's Count." These two wonderful books not only include an accompanying CD, they also display Chinese characters as well as pin yin phonetics, which help the reader pronounce the Chinese characters.

"Mandy and Pandy quickly became a part of my family's household as well as many of my friends, family and neighbors'," said Melissa Golden, Regional Market Leader of Mandy and Pandy. "I believe in these books and their purpose so strongly that I wanted to be a part of Mandy and Pandy so that others could experience the joy and education in their homes as Mandy and Pandy has brought into mine."

Author and creator Chris Lin says he sees the importance of learning Chinese as a good foundation for the future so that now more than ever we all have a reason to learn even a little bit of Chinese. After their debut at BookExpo America, books 3 and 4 are due to be released in July to coincide with the Beijing Olympics. These are Mandy and Pandy “Visit China” and Mandy and Pandy “Play Sports.”

“Mandy and Pandy look forward to helping teach Chinese to children and those who are young in their hearts,” said Lin. “Our year is full of appearances across the country and we are excited to be in the Los Angeles area as we continue on our journey.”

Mandy and Pandy has already been recognized as outstanding product by iParenting Media in the category of educational books for children as well as being nominated for several upcoming book awards. The iParenting Media award is considered one of the most prestigious awards for products for families.
