Columbia, SC/May 26, 2008 – George Autry Jr. author of Malice Cloaked In Liberty will be holding a book signing in Columbia, SC. Autry will be appearing at The Happy Bookseller located at 4525 Forest Drive, Columbia, Thursday, May 29th at 1 pm. Autry will be signing his critically acclaimed book and answering questions from attendees.

Malice Cloaked in Liberty (ISBN 978-1-60477-382-8, Townhall Press, 2008) rips off the secretive world of today's liberal thought and organizations to expose the dangers that they are presenting to America. Among the topics that the newly released and critically acclaimed book deals head on with such issues as the culture war, race, radical Islam, the attack on religion, illegal immigration, and judicial tyranny. Autry, the Chairman of America's Majority wrote this book because of the concerns and fears that he has about the aggressive and dangerous agenda of today's radical left who are using America's own freedoms and laws to impose their viewpoint on an unwilling country. He hopes that Malice Cloaked in Liberty will serve as a wake-up call to Americans who are blind to this radical assault on their basic liberties and rights.

“Today's radical left and their supporters are using the fundamental rights that our founding fathers bequeathed to us in their bid to undermine our nation and give aid and support to those who would harm America,” said Autry, “The cloak that I refer to in my title is the way that these groups hide their true intent and purpose from millions of Americans in the name of political correctness. The malice is the political correctness that they seek to impose upon all but is never considered except for a few as being malicious.”

George Autry Jr. has served in the ministry for over 25 years. Autry has always been active in conservative politics and the issues that are important to the cause of Christ in America. Autry is also the chairman for America's Majority. America's Majority is a public service organization dedicated to representing the general public on issues that affect personal freedoms, individual rights, the Christian faith and the security of our nation.
