Berlin/Madrid 30th May 2008 – The well known Spanish translation company, ALBISA optimizes from now on its Workflowmanagement and Projectmanagement with the Plunet BusinessManager. Working with over 600 freelancers and proofreaders, Albisa needs a flexible, transparent and comprehensive system, in order to develop a wide variety of national and international projects. “We are really glad of ALBISA’s decision of setting Plunet at once. The confidence shown in our system is high. So are the expectations put on us”, summed up the Plunet Marketing Director, Bastian Enners. After an intensive test phase together, in ALBISA’s head office in Madrid, they will switch over completely to the Plunet BusinessManager. “We have had a look at the systems available in the market. In the end the decision fell on the Plunet Business Manager, which we hope to be the best solution to our diverse and very complex translation processes”, explained Heinz Rudolf, Managing Director of ALBISA.
