SOUTHURY, CT, June 5, 2008 - Casa Latino Franchise Corporation announced today that it will incorporate several Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE: FNF) products and tools initially Cyberhomes, Listing Producer and EC Purchasing to further assist its real estate agents to conduct business and to better educate consumers on the process of buying a home. Robb Heering, president and founder of Casa Latino Franchise Corporation, said: "I am delighted to make available to our brokers and agents important tools to help them succeed in this challenging real estate market; and to be associated with a company with the capabilities and reputation of FNF."

FNF's Multicultural Marketing Division will also support Casa Latino agents in helping to educate immigrant and non-English-speaking home buyers and sellers about the home buying process. "FNF's Multicultural Marketing Division and its nationwide network of title and escrow companies are uniquely positioned to assist Casa Latino in both closing transactions and reaching out to underserved consumers," said Pablo Wong, FNF senior vice president for market development. FNF's title and escrow companies operate under five brands, including Chicago Title, Fidelity National Title, Ticor Title, Alamo Title and Security Union Title.

"As our business relationship grows, we will incorporate other helpful FNF tools and establish FNF's family of title insurance companies as Casa Latino's preferred providers of title and settlement services," concluded Heering.

About Casa Latino

Casa Latino was created in 2005 based upon the premise that Hispanic home buyers and sellers have unique needs based upon cultural differences and lifestyles, bolstered by the fact that those needs are not being effectively served by any other national brand. The company offers franchisees unprecedented culturally specific and significant back office support, training, marketing tools, advertising, coaching, and much more to ensure their success. The franchise model encourages a variety of agent compensation programs which dramatically enhance a broker's ability to recruit agents. The low franchise fee and an exceptionally low transaction-based royalty structure make Casa Latino an extremely attractive opportunity. Casa Latino has awarded franchises in several states and is executing an aggressive growth plan in the USA and many other countries. More information can be found at www.casalatin.com.
