Press release from: New Believers Missionary Baptist Church

Dallas, Texas – July 2008. What started as a small vision in the eyes of Bishop Veynell Warren has now come to fruition as the New Believers Missionary Baptist Church celebrates 9 years ministering to the community. The dates for the church anniversary are July 7 – July 9 (7pm nightly) with closing ceremony on July 13 at 3pm.

“If the Bible says it, we believe it!” said Warren. Warren also added, “Crazy faith deserve Crazy praise, which result in Crazy Favor!”

The 4-day event will include featured speakers from a diverse pool of ministries such as, Bishop Melvin Walker and Pastor Lowell Cleaver, along with performances by praise dancers, stomp teams, gospel groups, and soloists. Please continue to check out the www.newbelievers.org website for exciting updates on the many upcoming events.
