Americana Community Bank (ACB) today announced it has hired David Wagner, Jr. as Business Banking Manager for its Maple Grove branch.

With more than 25 years of progressive banking experience, Wagner specializes in commercial business development and is dedicated to assisting his clients in achieving their financial goals. Wagner most recently held several senior management positions for a large bank in their St. Cloud and Minnetonka branches.

Energetic and passionate about serving customers and their financial needs, Wagner is eager to begin building relationships with Maple Grove customers and to become a part of the Americana Community Bank community-centered environment. Wagner has been actively involved in the communities he has served, participating in Chambers of Commerce, Rotary Clubs, the United Way and various volunteer activities and community service boards.

“We’re pleased to have Dave join the Americana Community Bank team,” said Allen Obernolte, Americana Community Bank President and CEO. “His experience, along with his banking knowledge, is a perfect fit with our philosophy of partnership banking with our customers.”
