Circle Hill Capital Group (CHCG) announced today that it has agreed to acquire Wizatbiz.com, an online media and e-commerce company that operates a business web site for entrepreneurs and small businesses. Following the acquisition, Wizatbiz.com will operate independently to preserve its successful brand.

The acquisition combines one of the newest and fast growing online business communities with Circle Hill Capital Group's financial resources and expertise in organization. The combined companies will focus on providing a better, more comprehensive experience for entrepreneurs and business owners interested in finding online business resources.

"I'm confident that with this partnership we'll have the flexibility and resources needed to pursue our goal of building the next-generation online resource for entrepreneurs and small business owners." Said B.W. Clark, a managing member of Circle Hill Capital Group, LLC. Launched in June of 2008 Wizatbiz.com assist entrepreneurs and business owners with saving time and resources by addressing their most pressing problems and challenges, while providing them with the resources to obtain their maximum business success. Two months since it was launched, Wizatbiz.com has already shown strong signs of future success with over a thousand visitors a day.
