After a few weeks off due to the World Championship events and the USPGA (where Pdraig Harrington won the second Mayor back to back) it was good to get back out to Arlandastad near Stockholm for the Scandinavian Masters.

The Tuesday was a pretty quite day however on Wednesday it was busy with once again lots of interest in the Donna Putter. Manual Quiros took one with a line on the top bent to 70 degree lie with a 2 thumb Feeltec grip. This is a prototype version of the 2 thumb grip, which is a lot lighter and softer.

I also built up a Callie also with the new 2 thumb grip for Mark Foster and spent a little time working with Mark getting back to some basics after he has a few weeks off. Swedes Peter Gustaffson and did Henrik Norlander also picked up Donna putters while Joel Sjolholm took an Abbie I built to 33.5 with a 60g counterweight.

After lunching on volcanic dust Jesper Parnevik also tested the Donna and said he liked it. If we had one in a centre shaft he said he would have definitely used it.

Ollie Fisher was also playing this week so we met up to do some work. Ollie had overdone a few little things in his set up so we got back on track and things were looking good.

Next week it's the Dutch Open in Holland. After a positive reaction to the work done at the British Open Henrik Stenson has requested Harold and I to be there to do some follow up work. Looking forward to that.
