Macintosh centered websites and blogs can now participate with an affiliate program offered by the berlin based company nova media.

"The connection manager launch2net and the cell phone suite FoneLink are leading solutions in their segment." states jan Fueblemann, PR spokesperson at nova media. "We want Bloggers and website owners to gain their share on the success of these products by selling it on their sites."

The sales process is completely conducted through the nova media shop. After the successful registration with nova media, the affiliate can place a link to the products from its site and start earning 20% of the appropriate product's net sales price (+19% VAT if applicable).

"We will of course have a look at the site which wants to be registered, as we do not want to support and SPAM site or link collection." declares Mr. Fueblemann. "We want to reward these sites which live for and with the Mac community."

Each partner can see the number of products sold and the commission he earned instantly in its partner section of the nova media site. Nova media offers marketing material as well as demoverision.

Since 1996, nova media is the premier source of Macintosh solutions for the mobile industry like hardware manufacturers and network operators.

Today, nova media is the market leader in mobile data solutions for Macintosh Computers. The success of nova media is based on its two flagship products launch2net and FoneLink.

launch2net is an easy to use internet connection manager for mobile devices like cell phones, USB modems and ExpressCards. It has been licensed by T-Mobile, Vodafone and Sony Ericsson, besides others. FoneLink is a comprehensive cell phone management solution, providing advanced synchronization, data and media file management, SMS text messaging and backup features.

In addition to these flagship products, nova media offers innovative solutions like its iPhone migration tool Fone2Phone, which has recently been awarded one of the best 12 products at Macworld exhibition in 2008.
