

Calendar: Russia 2009 - towns and sceneries along Trans-Siberian Railway

Date: 09-10-2008 03:49 PM CET

Category: Arts & Culture

Press release from: Jan Balster

Under the title „Russia 2009 - towns and sceneries along Trans-Siberian Railway“has just published the calendar of the German globetrotter Jan Balster.

The calendar:

What longing, the trans-Siberian railway. The longest railroad line of the world. A life's dream comes true. It widens of the country, the Russian soul. A trip by eight time zones along the classical route of the Trans-Siberian Railway, from Moscow about the cloister of Ivolginsk, Baikal, the holy sea of the Russians to Vladivostok, 9258 kilometres. The observer succumbs to the fascination of outstanding photographs that is sedate in scene optimally.

Each leaf of the calendar is printed on both sides, a photography is in the upper area and in the low part of the calendars of the respective month. Additionally, spaces present themselves there for own enrollments sufficiently.

Bibliographical statements:

Jan Balster

„Russia 2009 - towns and sceneries along Trans-Siberian Railway“

Price: approximately 15,90 Euro

Scope: 26 sides, 12 photographs,

Duration: 12 months

Initially-date: 1. January 2009

Format: 11 x 17“, 28 x 42 cm

Production: coil cover, color-pressure,

Lulu publishing house

The calendar is also publishes in German under the title „Russland 2009 – Städte und Landschaften entlang der Transsibirischen Eisenbahn.“

Available in the Internet: stores.lulu.com/trotter

I like to be available to you for further information, title-illustrations and Author-illustrations in pressure-quality.

Information preview and Data-material downloads:

www.auf-weltreise.de/presse_index_dt.htm

Jan Balster
Leipziger Strasse 149
01139 Dresden
Tel.: (0351) 8 56 79 00
EMail: jan-balster@auf-weltreise.de
Internet: www.auf-weltreise-shop.de

Author:

„As globetrotters seeks the authentic he in the country and in the human being...“, Sächsische Zeitung / Germany

Photography, for him, is more than a profession - it is a passion. Jan Balster, from Dresden, Germany, is a freelance writer, travelling journalist and professional photographer, who prefers to work with simple analogue equipment. He is particularly interested in black and white photography and in FineArt prints. He is on the constant look-out for intense, lingering moments of experience - moments that prevail and continue to fascinate for many years.

About his trips to Russia and Central-Asia as well as plans, he informs on his Homepage: www.auf-weltreise.de

Under other has appeared from him:

Jan Balster; „On foot from Dresden to Dublin“ – 3100 kilometers on foot and without money through Europe; ISBN-13: 978-3-89793-124-4; 14,90 Euro; 294 pages with 100 illustrations; Berlin 2006; Language: German; edition ost/ Verlag am Park; www.eulenspiegel-verlag.de; eulenspiegel.txt.de/Eulenspiegel/TXTSIArtikel/3-89793-124-9

Co-Author with the „Self-Trip-Handbook“; Peter Meyer publishing house; 4.Auflage; July 2005; 16,95 Euro; Language: German; contributions: Eastern Europe, Russia and central-Asia

You can find this press release here