Press release from: tyBit, Inc

(Fayetteville, NC) tyBit Unified Search announced today that it will now offer new advertisers a free one year domain name registration and a year of web hosting for a limited time. tyBit, the cutting edge client side search engine generated over 50 million searches in the month of August 2008 and anticipates to exceed that number this month. "We have over 6,000 advertisers currently in our Pay-Per-Click (PPC) program many of which have been using and benefiting from tyBit since our beta." says Kitti Jo Finch, tyBit General Manager. Happy with his decision to advertise in the tyBit Search Engine, Berge Kaprelian of Beka Publishing stated, "We have received over 40+ leads from our ads on tyBit, we love it."

It is estimated that there are over 12 million small businesses in the US and only 300,000 can afford to routinely advertise online. With this one of a kind offering, tyBit has set a new precedent to provide a combo service that small businesses can now not only create a website and make their business available online but a marketing mechanism to drive new traffic to their stores. Small businesses that are only interested in reaching their local market or region can also benefit from tyBit, the company's services grant the ability to limit where and when ad displays by state, city, or even zip code in a very affordable manner. Avery Skelton VP Sales and Marketing for AIT said, "Just as the cost of Internet access is becoming more affordable, AIT and tyBit believe that the cost to advertise to these new Internet users should be just as affordable." Don't let this special opportunity pass you by you'll never get this kind of offer any other web hosting company or domain registrar because only AIT has tyBit!
