Blinds Express, a leading window shades retailer, announced it will hold a grand reopening on October 1, 2008 and will be featuring its two new product lines, which includes M&B-Alta window blinds.

ROCHESTER, NY -- Long-time window blinds, shutters, and shades retailer Blinds Express announced it will celebrate a new arrival to the World Wide Web with a grand reopening on October 1, 2008. Along with its opening, BlindsExpress.Com will offer its two new product lines to accompany its existing selection -- M&B-Alta Blinds and Kathy Ireland area rugs.

The Kathy Ireland line of area rugs come in a wide range of sizes and color palates. Kathy Ireland Home First Lady and Kathy Ireland Essentials feature various traditional patterns. The Home Innovations line includes a mix of geometrical, western, and organic themes. Another series, named the 'Quilts of Gee's Bend', is inspired by the historical African-American culture or rural Alabama and are constructed of olefin.

The M&B Alta line includes faux, composite, and wood window blinds from 1 3/8 inch to two inches wide. Aluminum, cellular and vertical blinds are also available from Blinds Express. For consumers who prefer window shades, the New York blinds retailer offers linen roller shades in manual and solar styles as well as woven wood.

"The M&B Alta window blinds and the Kathy Ireland area rugs are beautiful additions to our existing products. Customers can't help but fall in love when they see the quality and style options of these lines. I know we certainly did. They come in so many colors and styles, they can match any home or office decor," said Thomas Williams of Blinds Express (www.blindsexpress.com).

Along with their two new lines, Blinds Express will make its existing product lines available online as well. Levolor and Levolor Blinds come in wood, faux wood, and aluminum window blinds in a variety of colors, styles and patterns including corded, cordless and cellular. Comfortex and Comfortex blinds include drapery sheers, traditional style blinds, and fabric verticals. There is also Hunter Douglas and Hunter Douglas Blinds, Bali Blinds, Graber Blinds, and Norman Shutters.
