The global law firm of Thompson & Knight LLP congratulates John H. Martin and Peter J. Riley on being named by the legal services information company Lawdragon to its list of "Leading Lawyers in America." In its fourth annual guide, "The Lawdragon 500 Leading Lawyers in America" represents less than 0.01 percent of the legal profession, and the company describes its list as the most elite group of legal professionals compiled in the country.

Martin is a Partner in the Trial Practice Group of Thompson & Knight's Dallas office. He is widely recognized for his legal work and public speaking on the subjects of catastrophic injury, mass tort, and aviation litigation. He is one of the state's most distinguished attorneys in the civil defense field. Martin is Immediate Past President of DRI-The Voice of the Defense Bar and is actively involved in numerous professional and civic organizations.

Riley has served as the Firm's Managing Partner and Chairman of the Management Committee since 2001. He has more than 20 years of experience representing multi-party bank groups and other businesses in complex financial reorganizations, including matters that involved several of the largest bankruptcy cases in U.S. history. Riley is a noted speaker and author on effective law firm management and was recently featured in Lawdragon's "100 Managing Partners You Need to Know."

The Lawdragon 500 lists the nation's best legal professionals, including private lawyers, legal academics, nonprofit attorneys, government lawyers, and judges in the U.S. To select this prestigious group, Lawdragon's editorial staff conducted extensive research and called thousands of legal professionals to solicit their opinions about who are the best lawyers. They then combined this research with votes collected through their online ballots to produce the Lawdragon 500 print magazine and online listing.
