Interesting 2nd and 3rd day at the Asian Golf Summit in China

On the second day, the morning session is packed with powerful speakers and themes from which all participants will surely take plenty of information back home to use in their daily live.

In the afternoon another pack of discussions with experts is on the agenda, so that every participant can join the sessions he feels most important for his business and personal interests.

The 3rd day will bring topics like Golf-Architecture, Multiple course-Management and Golf Tourism to the participants from all around the world.

The Clash-of-the-Titans Tournament on the David Duval course will surely be a nice ending of the summit.

Michel Monnard will then host 2 days of Private Swash Putting Clinics in the area to improve brand awareness for the Harold Swash Putting School of Excellence in conjunction with new Accredited Instructor Marc Boggia from Central Golf in Hongkong.

Surely some well deserved golfing holidays at Mission Hills wont be missing before flying back through Doha (Qatar). The middle east is an important region for the Harold Swash Putting School of Excellence, as it is the connection between East and West.

Harold Swash has more than 40 years of experience in the golf industry as a coach, golf club designer and inventor of putting training aids.

Harold has coached many of the top professional and amateur golfers with his innovative putting training techniques including Pdraig Harrington, David Howell, Henrik Stenson, Niclas Fasth, Soren Kjeldsen, Darren Clarke, Ian Woosnam, Constantino Rocca, Robert Jan Derksen and Nick Faldo to name just a few.

Harold Swash is making his teaching philosophy available for all keen golf teaching professionals who want to learn how to teach Putting better.
