Press release from: ADSI Advanced Distribution Solutions Inc

Agency: ROI Marketing

With two acquisitions and a growing direct sales force, ADSI solves customer automation challenges with robust software, dedicated in-house support and a seasoned professional services team.

Hoffman Estates, IL, December 2, 2008 ADSI announced today the acquisition of Logistics Technology Support, LTS. The transaction was made effective, December 1, 2008. On May 16, 2008, ADSI acquired the shipping and WMS solutions division of Adonix Transcomm.

The acquisitions bring together some of the industry's best talent to service and support wireless and shipping solutions for mid and large scale companies. "ADSI recognizes that the experience and knowledge is with its employees," said Bob Fischer, President and CEO of ADSI. "We are pleased to have Eddie Pile, founder of LTS, join ADSI and become an instrumental part of our organization."

The union of the combined companies offers to its customers the next level of customer service and support along with technological advancements in warehouse and distribution shipping solutions.

"ADSI's plan is to make the combination of our companies bring greater choice and value to all customers," continued Mr. Fischer. "Elements of the plan include protecting the client's investment, in-house centralized support desk and a team of seasoned professional services staff to name a few. We're dedicated to preserving these relationships for years to come."
