

Pedro Pablo Andreu joins A&S Fersa Bearings as new General Manager of Globalization

Date: 01-13-2009 01:13 PM CET

Category: Tourism, Cars, Traffic

Press release from: A&S Fersa

Zaragoza, Spain - Pedro Pablo Andreu joins A&S Fersa as new General Manager of Globalization and will be in charge of the international expansion of the company. The two areas of focus which the job entails are, first, the optimization of management and competitiveness in the supply chain - developing upon current operations as well as analyzing the acquisition of productive units in LCC - and second, the establishment and development of commercial subsidiaries in strategically countries.

Before joining A&S Fersa, Mr. Andreu, worked in Barcelona for four years as Expansion Director of CNA Group, a leading manufacturer of kitchen household appliances with over 2000 employees in its plants in Spain, China and Brazil. Prior to CNA, he held the position of Export director at Dana Automoción S.A., manufacturer of engine parts, part of the Dana Corporation, for a period of four years.

Mr. Andreu holds a Master in International Business from ESIC, as well as a Executive MBA from ESADE Business School.

About A&S Fersa

A&S Fersa is a manufacturer of bearings from Spain. Its products include tapered roller bearings, ball bearings, angular contact bearings, and cylindrical bearings. With over 40 years of experience in bearing manufacturing, A&S Fersa can be found in more than 60 countries all around the world. For more information, please visit www.fersa.com.

A&S Fersa
C/Bari 18 - Plaza
Zaragoza, Spain

Michael Brussow
Marketing Manager
ph: +34 976 333 850
email: marketing.mb@fersa.com

You can find this press release here