BUFFALO, New York, January 16, 2009 - - Peter K. O'Connell, president of audio'connell Voice Over Talent, was elected to serve a two year term on the board of directors of Media Communications Association - International (MCA-I), it was announced today. As part of his role on the association's board, O'Connell will also serve as chairman of the association's Membership Committee.

"Over my twenty-five plus years in the communication industry, the technological avalanche I have witnessed over the past five to seven years has been amazing. It's one of the reasons I joined MCA-I. The portability, the speed and the accessibility of the technology driving personal and professional communication today across so many media channels means that individuals and companies will need to access the brain power of our MCA-I membership now more than ever," Peter O'Connell said

With nearly 800 members' world-wide, MCA-I supports professional communicators who work in film, video, the Internet as well as other electronic media and who communicate through broadcast and non-broadcast delivery channels. The professional association is headquartered in Madison, Wisconsin and with 29 active chapters celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2008.
