Hong Kong – March 21, 2006 - The Founder of Imperiali Organization, Daniel Imperato, has been traveling throughout the Asian community reestablishing relationships pertaining to building out the infrastructure project development and strategic partnering relationships for Imperiali Organization on a global basis.

Imperiali Organization announced today that it has reestablished relationships with Indonesia, Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong, China, and will consider developing future relations with other Asia Pacific countries such as Taiwan, Japan, the Philippines, etc. in the coming weeks.

Yesterday, Founder of the Imperiali Organization, Daniel Imperato, and Dan Mangru, met with distinguished Hong Kong Telecommunications Executive and Business Lawyer Albert Luc.

Luc has a myriad of interests in telecommunications, as well as general business activities in the Hong Kong, China, and Asia Pacific region.

He will be sourcing business opportunities from China for opportunity in America and around the globe. Additionally, he will assist the Imperiali Organization to provide access to the Chinese, Hong Kong, and Asia Pacific markets for Imperiali Organization partners.

Imperiali Organization's global network now has a foothold in the Chinese global market for distribution of products and services available through the proposed business portal.

The Organization has been strengthening its global relations to adapt itself to the rollout of its products and services particularly its global expansion business portal, search engine (www.i1search.com), and public relations firm (www.i1connect.com).

Imperato stated, "Our company is positioned to be a huge global success and is in phase to setup a huge global platform as needed to enhance the ability to expand companies around the globe faster than the speed of light, through our internet portal."

In addition the Imperiali Organization's investment of several of tens of millions of dollars, in time, money, and efforts and over 30 years of strong global relations, has given the ability to bring the company into fruition pertaining to the projects that the company is involved with which should have progress faster than most.

The next phase for Imperiali Organization is to reestablish the South American, African, Scandinavian, and Eastern Bloc relations for the global expansion distribution portal.
