February 17, 2006 – Phoenix, AZ. Diet to Your Door recently earned a five-star rating from Review Place for its straightforward website and easy-to-follow prepared meal system.

“We’re pleased that Review Place has recognized our efforts with this rating,” said Lionel Mendoza, a spokesman for Diet to Your Door. “Diets fail all the time because people just don’t have the time and energy to devote to planning their meals and eating right. Our program solves that problem.”

Diet to Your Door makes losing weight simple. No more counting calories, reading ingredients, or struggling to put together meals that meet a diet’s requirements – customers simply select the type of meal plan they want, and Diet to Your Door delivers a week’s worth of healthy prepared meals. The program’s easy-to-navigate website provides information on the plan, the menus it offers, and its founder, Dr. Caroline J. Cederquist. Informational weekly newsletters and access to the program’s team of dieticians provide support for program members during their quest for healthy living. Answers to frequently asked questions and articles on various health-related topics help visitors make the decision to lose weight...the easy way.

“Diet to Your Door gives users the convenience of prepared foods without sacrificing your health,” said Andy West, of Review Place. “The program is designed for folks who don’t have the time or the know-how to design diet-friendly meals. Best yet, the website is as easy to use as the service.”
