TILP International sponsors 2nd Islamic Wealth Management Conference – Mr Alexander Reus speaks on legal opportunities and duties of asset managers in the field of cross-border securities litigation

Munich, 27th of March 2006. TILP International, a leading investor protection law firm focussing on securities litigation in Europe and in the United States, sponsors the 2nd Islamic Wealth Management Conference to be held March, 28/29 2006, in Geneva.

Mr. Alexander Reus, Managing Partner of TILP International's U.S. operations: "Islamic assets from institutional investors and Islamic Family Offices play an important role in our rapid growth in the field of cross-border securities litigation. We are therefore looking forward to discussing legal opportunities with senior Islamic Finance experts at the upcoming Geneva conference."

Mr. Detlef Zawadzki, Managing Partner of the recently opened Dubai office, adds: "With TILP International now being represented in the Middle East, we clearly have an edge in representing these important markets as a first mover in the area of cross-border securities litigation."

With lawyers and offices in New York, Miami and Dubai, TILP International represents private and institutional investors from the United States, the Middle East and Europe in United States and European securities (class) actions, settlements or alternative litigation means, in order to recover securities fraud related investment losses. TILP International represents clients with assets under management of cumulatively more than $ 200 billion. TILP International is part of the TILP Group.
