Moolchand Medcity, New Delhi, February 09, 2009 - Moolchand Blood Bank is amongst the first 4 hospitals in India to receive the NABH accreditation. It has received the National Accreditation Board for Hospitals and Healthcare Providers (NABH) for its Blood Bank at the 4th National Quality Conclave held recently in the capital. This accreditation is provided when an underlying entity is found complying and conforming to strict standards and parameters prescribed by NABH. This accreditation is a proof of excellent systems and standards adopted by the hospital in providing world class healthcare facilities to its patients. Set up under the aegis of Quality Council of India (QCI), NABH is the sole accreditation body for certifying healthcare systems in the country.

According to Mr. Shravan Talwar, CEO, Moolchand Medcity, "Moolchand is committed to redefining healthcare through quality and excellence. We are proud to be the first multispecialty hospital in North India to have received NABH accreditation and ISO 9001:2000 certification. The recent NABH accreditation of our Blood Bank further ensures patient safety and quality of care. We are continuously looking for partners in our quality journey".

ABOUT MOOLCHAND

As one of India's foremost names in healthcare, Moolchand has been setting standards for the past half century. Located in the heart of the capital, the plans are to develop Moolchand Medcity as Asia's largest single site multispecialty hospital complex (6 specialties, 1000+ beds). We aspire to be your lifelong healthcare partner by delivering your healthcare wishlist: superb physicians, cutting-edge technology, compassionate care, integrity and affordable excellence. Moolchand is the first multispecialty hospital in North India to receive the National Accreditation Board for Hospital and Healthcare Providers (NABH) accreditation and ISO certification (9001:2000, 27001 and Platinum).
