Press release from: Strateo Consulting Inc.

Strateo Consulting Inc. announced on March 12, 2009 the launch of its new online Flash website design service. The easy website design will be offered on a new site stratsites.com. StratSites are inexpensive, easy to edit and offer full ecommerce capabilities.

Ron Strand, President of Strateo Consulting Inc. stated at the launch event, "We are very excited about what StratSites have to offer. Many of our clients do not have in-house website design capability. Being able to offer professional website design in an easy to use, self-serve format means virtually anyone can design and maintain a dynamic and exciting website."

Mr. Strand also noted that Flash is well suited to online training programs and may be used to train new employees. A site can be up and running in minutes making them great for events, showcasing products and special promotions.

Strateo Consulting will continue to offer its marketing and communications consulting services, fund development planning and campaign management.

Strateo Consulting Inc. is based in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Since 2001 it has served some of the largest organizations in Canada with marketing and campaign management services. Communication consulting includes website design and the development of online education programs.
