PHILADELPHIA, PA – eModa Lifestyle Magazine has announced that its June issue will feature R&B artist star Chanj. A phenomenal vocalist, Chanj has been called the rising star that is revolutionizing the R&B industry. In the June issue, scheduled for release on the first of the month, eModa stylist Michelle Miller outfitted Chanj in the most popular men's designer clothing labels including Five Four, Monarchy Ezisu and Salvage.

Miller tracked down Chanj for a photo shoot after seeing an incredible public reaction to him at a recent performance. “He was awesome on stage and behind the camera -- the pictures are incredible. He’s one of the most charismatic people I’ve ever worked with. If you don’t know of him now, there is no doubt in my mind that you will soon,” Miller says.

After winning last year's Apollo award, the R&B vocalist became an almost instant phenomenon. Chanj, whose unique name spelling is a result of his NJ roots, has already been invited sing in front of Motown legends including Barry Gordy and Smokey Robinson – and he received a standing ovation from both.

Dave Brown, VP of Alistair Record, Chanj's record label, couldn't agree more with the warm and welcoming reception that the new artist is receiving. "The sounds that come out of Chanj are just phenomenal. He sings from his heart – this kid a true talent," says Brown.

In addition to the feature on Chanj, the June installment of eModa Lifestyle Magazine, which is available for free download at eModa.com, covers stories on the hottest trends in men's and women's designer clothing, current events and celebrity news. Though a new publication, eModa Magazine has already gained a loyal readership and has been recognized for its in-depth interviews and personal celebrity photo shoots.

The cover story of eModa Lifestyle Magazine features a photo shoot an interview with Jackass star Bam Margera and his wife Missy. Also within the virtual pages of the June issue is a sit down candid interview with all of the male eModa models about everything from what kind of underwear they wear, to one-night stands, to views on relationships. The models range in age from 22-32, and present a wide range of surprising perspectives.

Readers of the upcoming issue will also enjoy a feature on classic Hollywood blondes. From Gwen Stephani, Brad Pitt, Justin Timberlake to Cameron Diaz, eModa stylists have put together a collection of the trendiest outfits the iconic blondes might wear from eModa down to their favorite brands of men's and women's designer jeans. For added sauciness, the issue also features candid sex advice from a professional sex therapist.

“Every page of the June issue of eModa Lifestyle Magazine is packed with the hottest trends and celebrity news. From the photo shoot with Chanj and Bam and Missy Margera, to revealing in-depth interviews, there's a little something for everyone to enjoy,” says Dan Kogan of eModa (www.emoda.com).
