In 1958 "The Quarrymen" (The Band that started The Beatles) recorded their first single which now is one of the most valuable of all times. Today it belongs to Sir Paul McCartney. On the occasion of the "Star-Club TV" series production (part 1) the Quarrymen once more went to a studio and recorded the title song "Never stop Rockin Rollin" as the next single - exactly 50 years later. Along with the current Quarrymen line-up there were aswell special quest-musicians. The other title of this single is a live version of "Twenty Flight Rock". The CD (retro-vinyl-design) is available at www.GaryLand.de and will be delivered in a 4-colour printed tin box. "Never stop Rockin Rollin" can be downloaded aswell and is available as a zipfile (WinRAR).
