Press release from: Sardinia Natour

Sardinia Natour, the travel agent who organizes vacations on one of the most beautiful islands in the Mediterranean, Sardinia, offers not only charming self-catering houses and apartments, hotels, farm holidays, residences and Bed & Breakfasts, but also cycling tours and bike-rental for active holidays in direct contact with the islands beautiful and still intact nature.

One focus of the tour program is the south-western part of Sardinia with its beautiful and varied stretch of coast, its abandoned mines and archeological-prehistoric sites. The same applies to the north-western and north-eastern coast, where the tours lead through rocky mountains, dense forests and a Mediterranean vegetation towards a turquoise-colored and clear sea where sandy beaches and steep cliffs are alternating. No doubt - cycling is the ideal way to explore this fascinating landscape and enjoy an unique Sardinia off the beaten tracks!

The tours presented in the web-catalogue of Sardinia Natour are organized by local suppliers and are guided or self-guided. The duration can be some days, for example a longer weekend, or a week.

Who don't want to book a tour, but need a bike to explore the holiday destination in a more relaxing way, can rent different types of bicycles now directly from the homepage of Sardinia Natour. Offers for the south of Sardinia are now online, and bikes are available for Cagliari and coastal regions around Teulada and Villasimius.

You will find more information about the cycling program and the bike rental in the web-catalogue of Sardinia Natour (www.sardinianatour.com/EN/active-holidays-sardinia.php and www.sardinianatour.com/EN/rent-a-bike-sardinia.php).
