

TCC Snooker Pro-Am Set For Live Streaming

Date: 06-23-2009 02:29 PM CET

Category: Sports

Press release from: CueSport TV Ltd

The annual Tredegar Constitutional Club Pro-Am Snooker tournament is this year set for Live internet streaming through WebTV channel Cuesport TV.

The event which features two former World Champions in Shaun Murphy and Mark Williams will be live every Thursday evening starting on June 25th, there is a one week break on July 23rd with the final being played on August 13th.

In addition to the two players mentioned above the tournament has also attracted other Main Tour players including Ryan Day, Matthew Stevens, Mark Davis, Paul Davies and Daniel Wells. Alongside the star names will be a host of quality amateurs led by last year's winner Lee Walker who returns to defend his title.

The overall winner of the event will collect £1750 and the runner-up receives £800, it will act as a great pre-season event for the stars and gives them valuable match practice ahead of the Shanghai Masters in August.

The action starts at 7:30pm UK time and is exclusively available to Cuesport TV subscribers.

A subscription on the channel can be purchased from £2.95 ($4.75) which allows access to the subscription content for a period of 24 hours. Longer subscriptions are available and will work out cheaper.

Cuesport TV is a WebTV channel specialising in pool, snooker and billiards content. The company provides more than 30 live events per year which can now be purchased as part of a channel subscription.

Contact: Pete Williams
Managing Director
Cuesport TV Ltd
19 St Georges Road
Portland
Dorset
DT5 2AT
+44 1305 826486

You can find this press release here