LONDON, June 2009 - Summer is going to be a scorcher and what better way to make the most of it than having a picnic. Swissôtel The Howard, London is launching the ‘Picnic in the sky’ package where guests can indulge in a private picnic on one of our 9th floor Terrace Suites and view all the iconic landmarks along the length of the river Thames from the Houses of Parliament to Tower Bridge.

Picnic delicacies such as sandwiches, an assortment of meat, cold cuts, a variety of fish, cheeses and fruits will be served while relaxing on the blanket surrounded by grass and greenery to create a private park. A bottle of Veuve Clicquot Champagne and strawberries is added to end the special day.

To complete the experience guests stay overnight in the suite so they can relax all day long and wake up to a full English breakfast in the morning.

Picnic in the sky will be launched on Monday 8th June 2009 and starts from £500 per room per night which is bookable via www.swissotel.com/london.
