Redmond WA, US — June 29, 2009 — Today, iLink Systems proudly announced it has been selected as a 2009 Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference Awards winner in Public Sector, Health Partner of the Year. The company was chosen out of an international field of top Microsoft partners as delivering market-leading customer solutions built on Microsoft technology.

“We are very excited about being chosen as the Microsoft Public Sector Health Partner of the Year for 2009. Our offerings in Healthcare around Interoperability, IHE and User Experience are unique to the marketplace. One of the key metrics that we were able to showcase is the excellent customer satisfaction measured by physician engagement. The feedback we received for the User Experience of our solutions was exemplary” said Mahadevan Seetharaman, Director of Marketing and User Experience at iLink Systems, Inc.

Awards will be presented in a number of categories, with winners chosen from a pool of nearly 2,000 entrants worldwide. The Public Sector, Health Partner of the Year Award is given to a partner who has been a leader in delivering innovative solutions built on Microsoft technologies that provide our health customers with the benefit of cost savings and improved efficiencies.

“iLink Systems has successfully integrated HealthVault, the Microsoft Health Common User Interface, and Microsoft Silverlight to accelerate the design and implementation of community-based health record platforms,” said Linda Zecher, Corporate Vice President, Worldwide Public Sector, Microsoft Corp. “iLink’s solutions are highly efficient and allow their clients to offer their patients and providers easy and secure access to their medical records.”

The Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference Awards recognize Microsoft partners that have developed and delivered exceptional Microsoft-based solutions over the last year.
