Frankfurt am Main/Germany, (Juli 14, 2009) - Experience the German culinary secrets during a cooking course, the easiness of a BBQ whilst making friends with other newcomers, or enjoy an exclusive Nespresso tasting, what else?...

Mark your calendars for September, as Expat Cuisine has a select choice of highlights in store to meet the needs of Expats in Frankfurt and the Rhein Main area in Germany. All events support the new arrivals by welcoming them to their new host country, provide inside information in an informal setting, promote networking and the set up of a living network, off line, real time and face to face.

Expat Cuisine channels the long standing experience in global assignment management by its parent company CONSULTus GmbH, and puts it to work to the benefit of the Frankfurt Expat.
