New York City resident selected to serve with organization dedicated to helping women personally & professionally

Boston (May 5, 2006) –Wild Women Entrepreneurs (Wild WE) announced today that Yolanda “Shoshi” Shoshana has been appointed New York City Leader.

“The mission of Wild Women Entrepreneurs is to have women taking care of business on their own terms. These women are fearless, fun and fabulous. They are able to take the risks needed to be the Wild Women they are without compromise,” says Ja-Nae Duane, president and founder of Wild Women Entrepreneurs. “Shoshi emulates that everyday in her personal and professional life, and will be a great asset and role model in helping the New York-area women of Wild WE to reach their fullest potential.”

“I am looking forward to working with and learning from the great members of this organization, who have guided and inspired success-driven, powerful women over the years,” says Shoshana. “Wild WE is a great network that not only emphasizes on success in the business world, but also on the importance of having fun and enjoyment in the process.”

Shoshana, a New York, NY resident, is the matchmaker/relationship coach at the Center of Female Empowerment LLC ( www.shoshitheyenta.com). She helps people find their soul mates and coaches them on having more love in their lives for their partners and themselves. Shoshana attended the College of Santa Fe and she earned a BFA in theater.

Wild Women Entrepreneurs (www.thewildwe.com) is a membership-based organization that encourages women to reach their full potential in business and in life. Wild WE understands entrepreneurship as an essentially creative endeavor. Their objective is to share the tools, networks, and ideas women need to assume leadership positions.
