Press release from: ABAS Software AG

Lyon / Karlsruhe, July 31th, 2009 – AGITEC based outside of Lyon, France chose abas Business Software to optimize their expertise in designing and constructing all types of mixing and agitation machines. ABAS PGI France left all their competitors behind highlighting on AGITEC's needs to boost their sales process and production department.

AGITEC replaced their out-dated Sage System with abas ERP. Batch production, detailed processes in purchasing along with plant engineering and construction were the main reasons to look for a new ERP system. All their demands are covered with abas ERP including CRM and cost accounting with operational capabilities to conduct business worldwide.

Going live in 2010

With innovative implementation methods and training, ABAS PGI France supervises the project and ensures mid market company AGITEC's "GO LIVE Date" for January 1st 2010. Nine concurrent users will work with abas ERP to optimize processes in sales, production, and administration.

About Agitec (France)

AGITEC founded in 1991 specializes in designing and constructing all types of mixing and agitating machines and became market leader with 70% of the agitation marketing in the French pharmaceutical sector. The quality of the company's mechanical construction guarantees the efficacy and resistance over time of its machines.

Today, this expertise is recognized by a wide range of industrialists in fields of application as varied as chemicals and petrochemicals, paints and varnishes, pharmacy and biotechnology, the food industry (sugar, fruit juice, wine, dairy produce etc.), water treatment (paper industry, surfacing, metallurgy etc.), the perfume industry and more. AGITEC proposes machines that conform to the ATEX European regulations, designed for intensive use in an explosive environment, and uses all the materials and coverings adapted to corrosive environments. In many cases, the solution proposed is highly original and made-to-measure as it is intimately linked to the client's processes.
