Networking Group Helps Women Take Care of Business on Their Own Terms

Boston (May 13, 2006) – Spurred on by the success of chapters in 13 cities across the nation and interest from local business women located throughout the Salinas-area, Wild Women Entrepreneurs (Wild WE) is launching the Salinas Wild Women Entrepreneurs.

“The mission of the Wild Women Entrepreneurs is to have women taking care of business on their own terms. These women are fearless, fun and fabulous. They are able to take the risks needed to be the Wild Women they are without compromise,” says Ja-Nae Duane, president and founder of Wild Women Entrepreneurs. “We’re excited to offer the opportunity to women in the Salinas-area to become part of our growing network of almost 1000 members.”

With a focus of enhancing the business climate and quality of life for the benefit of its members and the greater community, the Salinas Wild WE chapter expects to provide additional business networking, educational programs and roundtables within the area as a whole, in addition to developing projects that will improve the business environment.

In addition, Vickie Lee has been named city leader of the chapter. She is an owner of a store on Ebay- VicToria’s Romance (stores.ebay.com/VicTorias-Romantic-Boutique).

Wild Women Entrepreneurs is a membership-based organization established in thirteen cities throughout North America and Europe, encouraging women to reach their potential in business and in life. Wild WE’s objective is to share the tools, networks, and ideas women need to assume leadership positions and empower women to become fun, fabulous, fearless females.
