Florida artist Courtney Loceff, 32, of Port St. Lucie, has seen the ins and outs of the Florida art world, and especially the world of the art fair. "We are blessed with warm weather here in Florida, and one of the great advantages of the weather is the ability to have outdoor art events all year - but I am just not happy with the form that they take". Ms. Loceff has shown her colorful art at art fairs from Miami to West Palm Beach over the last 10 years, but when she moved to the family friendly Treasure Coast two years ago, she has grown disenchanted with the local art scene. "It seems like the art community here does not support truly cutting edge colorful abstract and psychedelic art - but I think the demand is there - we don't have to go to South Beach to find new and exciting art". To that end, Ms. Loceff is planning an alternative art fair in the Treasure Coast. Her first goal is to seek out like minded artists "I would love Treasure Coast artists, but am willing to work with artists from Miami or Orlando - actually anyone who is willing to come to the Treasure Coast to show their art". Courtney is announcing an open call to creators of cutting edge colorful abstract and psychedelic art to go to go to www.courtneyloceff.com and submit their artwork to appear in her online art gallery. After building her coalition of artists, she is planning on banding them together to present the first alternative art fair on the Treasure Coast

Colorful Abstract Art by Courtney Loceff is an online art gallery located at www.courtneyloceff.com. The online gallery offers both original works and prints from Ms. Loceff, as well as like minded artists that offer colorful abstract art
