San Diego, CA, Sep 25, 2009 – California College San Diego (CCSD) now offers Financial Aid Counseling Services to its students as a step to remove the financial barriers to their education. Thanks to their counseling service offered, students will now have a single point of contact for all their queries and guidelines regarding financial aid.

California College San Diego understands that with the cost of college education escalating every year, students and families are often left floundering about where to look for aid, what the eligibility criteria are and how to apply. The Financial Aid counselors at CCSD help you determine your eligibility for various aid options thus making the entire process as simple and pain-free as possible.

California College San Diego's financial aid counselors are committed to making it possible for ALL students to go to college – even those who don't have the necessary financial resources at their disposal. The college will provide you with a personal financial plan showing you what grants and loans you are qualified to receive.

Major lenders with whom the college deals with include Direct Loans, CollegeInvest, Compass Bank, Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities, ASAP/Union Bank & Trust, Sallie Mae Ed Trust, Nellie Mae, and Sun Trust. California College also offers assistance with regards to information and applications for the Pell Grant and the Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG) Grant, Federal Loans such as the Subsidized Stafford Loan, Unsubsidized Stafford Loan and the Parents Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) Loan.
